TEUTONS GAINING IN WEST ZONE

DIXMUIDE, IN BELGIUM, IS TAKEN BY GERMANS

Paris, Nov. 11. (2:50 p. m.)—The French official statement this afternoon says that the fighting was resumed yesterday morning with great severity between Nieuport and the Lys. The French forces were successful in maintaining their front, but it is admitted that the Germans, toward the end of the day succeeded in taking possession of Dixmude. The British troops are described as having repulsed the enemy at several points.

At other points on the line the French claim slight progress. The text follows:

"On our left wing the fighting was resumed yesterday morning between Nieuport and the Lys. The French forces were successful in maintaining their front, but it is admitted that the Germans, toward the end of the day succeeded in taking possession of Dixmude. The British troops are described as having repulsed the enemy at several points.

To the north of Nieuport we were even able to reoccupy Lombaertz and advance beyond this town, but toward the end of the day the Germans succeeded in taking possession of Dixmude. We still hold our positions on the approaches of this town, along the canal from Nieuport to Ypres, which has been firmly occupied. The fighting was very hot at these places.

"The British troops, attacked also at several points succeeded everywhere in stopping the enemy."

EMDEN'S LOSSES ARE REPORTED 200 KILLED; HONORS ACCORDED

London, Nov. 11 (2:14 p. m.)—Captain von Muller of the German cruiser Emden which was attacked by the Australian cruiser Sydney and driven ashore in the Cocos Island where she burned, and Prince Franz Joseph of Hohenlohe, one of his officers, are both prisoners of war and neither wounded, according to an announcement by the admiralty this afternoon.

The admiralty says that the losses on the Emden are officially reported as 200 killed and 30 wounded. No further details have been received. The admiralty has given directions that all honors of war be accorded to the survivors of the Emden and that the captain and his officers are not to be deprived of their swords.

London, November 11.—(10:15 A. M.)—The Central News has received a despatch from its correspondent at Melbourne saying that the gunnery of the German cruiser Emden was good in the beginning of her fight off Cocos Island with the Australian cruiser Sydney, but deteriorated later. The German boat had two funnels shot away and caught fire astern within an hour after the beginning of the engagement. She is now ashore and continues to burn.

A landing party from the Emden previous to the beginning of the fight, had commandeered two months supplies from the Cocos Islanders, but the people were well treated.

Reuters Telegram company has received a despatch from its Peking correspondent who says it is reported there that the Emden was driven ashore on the rocks and severely damaged and that she has broken up.

MINE SINKS JAP TORPEDO BOAT

Tokio, Nov. 11 (2 p. m.)—Official announcement is made that torpedo boat number 33 of the Japanese navy was sunk by a mine early today at the mouth of Kiao-Chau bay while dragging for mines. A majority of the crew was rescued.

Other torpedo boats made an attempt to tow No. 33 into shallow water but failed.

Knights Of The Grip Contributed Funds

Columbus, Nov. 11. Traveling salesmen spent $409 of which $311 was contributed by Harvey C. Gardner of Columbus and $31 by the republican state executive committee in a campaign to defeat Gov. Cox. This was shown by a statement filed today at the secretary of state's office by Lalben H. Murray of Springfield, manager of the salesmen's campaign.

Mrs. Florence E. Richard, of Columbus, president of the Ohio Woman's Christian Temperance Union says in her statement that organization spent much time and effort working for the dry side of the home rule and prohibition amendment, but that it is impossible to estimate exact expenditures.

Congressional candidates who filed expense statements today were:

Isaac R. Sherwood, of Toledo, $1,255; Warren Gandy, Hamilton, $1,227; W. E. Foltz, Akron, nothing.

LONDON CLAIMS TEUTONIC ALLIES ON DEFENSIVE

London, Nov. 11. (1:38 p. m.)—Their own frontier lines at several points regularly day after day in the official reports show how stubbornly held them in the western field of battle in respect to land area where although the successes of the past two weeks have enabled the forces practically on the defensive against the forces of Great Britain, France and Belgium to maneuver a victory, the English students of strategy say the Germans are still disputing every foot of ground with bloody hand-to-hand fighting which is proving more difficult than has many sanguinary battles in the eastern field of operations where the Germans have won. The names of some towns known back well behind frontiers regularly day after day tried to detach France, is accepted in London as an indication that Germany is becoming aware of the difficulties of the task she has undertaken in prosecuting an offensive warfare against foes on two fronts, and the supposed failure of these outposts, if any have actually been made, is counted with the continual movement to the east of German troops from Belgium.

Military men in London think it not improbable that unless the battle being fought at Ypres or peasant invaders in East Prussia and Poland also to tend a bond in their favor the Germans will turn to their Australian allies. They fail back to the prepared line of Austrian armies, it seems today, stretching from Zedlitzberg to the Meuse and assume a purely defensive role in the trenches along this line which have been so well strengthened, and the approach to further south takes an eady turn to their Australian allies. They have been cut off from contact with the German forces by the wedge pushed forward by the Russian commanders.

James Harrington Boyd, of Topeka, candidate the judge of the court of appeals spent $170.

FEAR NIGHT RIDERS
Texarkana, Ark., Nov. 11.—Hearing actions by night riders who are becoming bolder in the southern portion of Miller county, farmers from the vicinity of Fouquette, Ark., are bringing cotton to Texarkana to store in warehouses here. They report posting of many warnings to farmers not to sell under 10 cents, threats of having cotton and even homes burned.

Quarantine Order In Effect, Only Passengers Are Carried

Royal Arcanum Will Have Class Initiation

The quarantine ordered by the Kentucky state authorities on local ferryboats forbidding the transportation of all live stock was put into effect at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

The order includes horses and only foot passengers are now being carried on the boats. The Interstate Transfer Company was busy all day removing feed to South Portsmouth to supply the teams that will be kept on that side of the river to do the hauling from the C. & O. depot to the ferryboat. Other teams and wagons will receive the loads on this side.

The Adams Express Company has discontinued its C. & O. wagon service and all the business will now be handled via Kenova and Cincinnati while the quarantine lasts.

JUDGE FACES CHARGES

Youngstown, O., Nov. 11.—A committee of five attorneys today filed charges with the common pleas court charging professional misconduct against Judge W. P. Barnum, Republican, of this city.

Barnum is charged with having promised immunity to Frank Callahan of Youngstown, convicted of conducting a disorderly house, provided Callahan would give him a lease to property Callahan owned. He is also charged with having attempted to compel Callahan to sign a false statement in newspaper. Barnum still has two years to serve as common pleas judge.

HAD COUGH SINCE CHILDHOOD

Mrs. Wm. Holman, 2764 Lincoln Ave., Chicago, Ill., writes:

"I suffered with asthma of bronchial tubes since a child. I would sit up in bed with pillows propped me behind me, but still the cough would not let me sleep. I thought and everybody else that I had consumption."

"I well now and cured of a chronic cough and sore throat. I cannot tell you how grateful I am, and I cannot thank Peruna enough. It has cured where doctors have failed and I talk Peruna whenever I go, recommend it to everybody. People who think they have consumption better give it a trial."

THIRD REASON FOR SAFETY OF DEPOSITS IN THE Royal Savings and Loan Company

819 GALLIA STREET

1. We require all buildings on real estate on which we have loans, to be insured in some good and responsible fire insurance company, with a loss clause on the policy making the insurance payable to The Royal as its interest may appear. Thus we are amply protected as well as the owner if the property is destroyed. This protection makes safety to our depositors.

2. Four per cent interest, compounded four times a year paid on deposits. Pass book or certificate of deposit which ever you wish.

3. Your account can be started with $1.00 or more. (See fourth reason next week.)

At the meeting of McPherson Council, No. 317, Royal Arcanum, held Tuesday evening, a number of additional applications were read for the class initiation to be held early in December, when several of the officers of the Grand Council of Ohio will be present. Preparations for the event are being carefully planned, and no effort will be spared to make the occasion an eventful one in the history of McPherson Council.

The next regular meeting of the Council will be held on the evening of November 24th. It has been decided to make it a social event and refreshments will be served to members and invited guests who will be in attendance.

SEASON OPENS MONDAY

The open season for rabbits begins Monday, November 16 and closes on Friday December 4. Deputy Game Warden Harry Hall stated Wednesday that all hunters must be armed with licenses and that violators of the rabbit law will be punished according to law.

TERMINALS

Lou Tellegen, Actor, Who Wears an Anklet

An actor who calls himself Lou Tellegen has jumped into New York society over night—a feat which some others have tried for without success. And this comic about largely because he wore an anklet in public. That is, this likable qualities would not have been noticed had his ankle not been seen first.

Tellegen says he studied military science at St. Cyr and sculpture under Rodin, after which he went to Brazil to dig for gold.

Then he became an actor on Broadway and appeared in "Marie Rosa". His work attracted attention at once and he was highly praised, but his acting would not have won him a place in New York society. One of the dunces of that peculiar institution saw him dancing the tango wearing the ankle. Of course he was graceful and a fine dancer, and altogether a good looking fellow.

He waved over him and he was introduced. From that he was invited to social affairs, and now he is busy in society when he is not on the stage.

WITH THE SICK

Little Lucien Doty, Jr., sweet little son of Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Doty, is ill with scarlet fever at their home, corner of Fourth and Waller streets. The case is not a serious one and the little patient is getting along nicely. Little Miss Gladys Doty is staying with her grandmother, Mrs. N. W. Evans.

Miss Mildred Goodman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Goodman of Fourth street, was operated upon last evening at Hempstead hospital, for appendicitis. Miss Goodman was taken suddenly ill. She is getting along as well as could be expected. Her father is out on a trip for the Gilbert Grocery Company and will be called home as soon as he can be located. The young man is a mere of Mr. Geo. Goodman.

NOTED SPEAKERS HERE FOR MISSIONARY MEETING

The Foreign Missionary Round Table meeting that is being held at the Christian church, opened at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning with Rev. Dr. A. McLean of Cincinnati, president of the Ohio Foreign Foreign Missionary Society of Foreign Missions in the United States, in charge. Secretary L. J. Cahill and Secretary Mary A. Lyons of Cleveland, are with Rev. McLean to assist in the work. They will deliver short talks tonight at 7 o'clock and the public is invited to hear them.

The question of foreign missions is one that is of interest to everybody and Rev. McLean and L. J. Cahill and Mary A. Lyons will deliver an interesting message along this line.

The Wednesday morning session was devoted to a conference of the three leaders and church members. Plans were made for an Every Member Canvass. Every phase of work that would benefit the fitness of the church was taken up for discussion.

Rev. McLean and his two associates were in Columbus Tuesday and will be in Athens, Ohio, Thursday.

Delegates from New Boston, Rio Grande, Piqua, and South Portsmouth are expected to be present at tonight's meeting in the Christian church.

City Solicitor Stanley McCall Wednesday drew up the contract for the work of reinforcing the east wall of the reservoir. Cuyahoga and Shawnee have ordered the necessary material and will begin work on the job in a few days.

SOAP ON HAIR CAUSES DANDRUFF, SCALP GETS DRY, HAIR FALLS OUT

After washing your hair with soap always apply a little Dandrine to the scalp to invigorate the hair and prevent dryness. Better still use soap as sparingly as possible and instead lave a "Dandrine" cloth with Dandrine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one strand at a time. This will remove dust, dirt and excess oil. In a few moments you will be amazed, your hair will not only be clean, but it will be wavy, fluffy and abundant, and possess an incomparable softness and lustre.

GEN. VILLA'S ARMY IS REPORTED MARCHING ON MEXICAN CAPITAL

Washington, Nov. 11.—Administration officials eagerly awaited news today of the sequel to the expiration of the Agua Calientes ultimatum which ordered General Carranza to surrender executive power in Mexico to Eulalio Gutierrez. The ultimatum expired last night and while official news was lacking, Mexico City despatches said it was reported Villa's advance guard was marching southward on its way to the capital.

If fighting occurred, it was the first clash between these troops and the army of General Gonzales, who loyal to Carranza, probably would take place at Queretaro. Carranza, the despatches added, had deposed the general commanding 50,000 men because they refused to nullify their agreement to abide by the Agua Calientes.

News reported from Mexico City that the Carranza government had asked the United States to fix a definite date for the evacuation of Vera Cruz had not been verified today by official advisers. Carranza, according to a telegram received in Mexico City from his foreign minister has granted all the American government's requests for guarantees at Vera Cruz.

In administration circles today there was a feeling that eventually Carranza would yield to the convention. However, that was Mason County Supply company based upon the intimations in of Franklin N. dominant force used by the Russians along their western battle front in pushing the invaders back across the border. Showing disregard of the German batteries; superior forces of Russian infantry time after time have advanced and won positions by the use of cold steel. From Moscow comes a report that during the fighting near Aradz, on the river Warthe, the Russians captured General von Mackenzie, commander of the Seventeenth German army corps. Together with members of his staff. It is reported also that General von Lichert, who was in command at Lodz when the Germans occupied that city, also has been captured by the Russians.

Austrians Abandon Positions

Rome reports that the Austrian army is abandoning entirely its positions in western Galicia and will winter at the foot of the Carpathians, renewing the war front that base in the spring. But the stubborn defense of Przemysl and the evident determination to defend Cracow hardly confirm this report.

Despatches reaching London from Belgium and Holland continue to insist that the Germans are withdrawing many of their troops from their western battle front, but the official communications from the headquarters of the allies do not indicate any diminution in the force of the German attack, which is proceeding with its usual fury.

Rumors Of Injuries To North Carolina Are Not Confirmed

Washington, Nov. 11.—Secretary Daniels was replying today to inquiries from anxious relatives of the officers and men of the cruiser North Carolina, which it was indefinitely rumored, had met with a mishap in the Mediterranean. Mr. Daniels told inquirers that while he had no official word from the cruiser, he felt positive she had not been harmed. He explained that if she had encountered an accident the department would have been advised before this time either by its own representatives or state department officials near thereto.

Navy bureau of operations sought today to get into communication with both the North Carolina and the Tennessee. Early in the month the North Carolina was at Beirut and the Tennessee at Mytilene off the Greek coast.

German Artillery Wrecks Malines, the Beautiful Art City

Malines, Nov. 11.—Barely ten thousand shared the same fate as residents in this ruined city, and thousands who are still here cannot stay after the beginning of cold weather unless outside funds are provided to repair shattered roofs and walls cracked by the German field guns.

Before the German invasion Malines had sixty thousand inhabitants and was an important art and manufacturing center. Strangled Cathedral, one of the most interesting medieval church buildings in Europe, dates back to the fifteenth century and contained an altar piece which was one of Van Dyke's master-pieces. St. John's church and the Church of Our Lady contained paintings of Rubens. The historic palace of justice was once the home of Margaret of Austria.

Malines is half-way between Antwerp and Brussels, on the principal stone roads connecting the two great cities of Belgium. Excellent roads flank this central highway on the west and east. It was along this central artery and the two flanking roads that the Germans moved against Antwerp, sweeping every obstacle which afforded a refuge to the opposing Belgians.

Like most ancient cities, Malines has narrow streets. The main traveled street, along which nearly all traffic moves in passing northward toward Antwerp, is scarcely thirty feet wide from curb to curb and has many turns in it, which made the passage of an enemy exceedingly difficult. Stone and brick business houses and residences 3 or 4 stories high, built in a continuous line, stand along this street. Many of these were battered down completely by the German artillery and the debris filled the street so completely that only enough has been cleared away in places to permit the passage of a single automobile.

Where fire did not spread to wretched buildings, the ruined stocks of merchandise and the broken furniture of their living apartments in the upper stories may still be seen. Such food supplies as were useful for the army were taken by the German officers and soldiers are billeted in the houses which are still fit for habitation.

War Parliament Has Convened In England; War Sinews Needed

London, Nov. 11—(9:15 a. m.)—King George today opened what probably will prove to be a purely war session of parliament. No controversial political question will be deliberated, but this does not mean that entire harmony will prevail.

The recreating session may lead to one step toward a supply of some pertinent and uncomfortable questions about the conduct of earlier phases of the war.

The labor party leaders are especially primed with questions in regard to pay for the soldiers, allowances for their dependents and pensions, but criticism of the government by the opposition probably will be restrained.

Reginald McKenna, the home secretary, is expected to make a report on the situation in regard to the alien enemies in England and the extent of the spending.

The most immediate business before the house of commons will be to provide money for war in men and money.

SOUTH AMERICAN TRADE.

Going after South American trade has become a phrase repeated time and again with the utmost assurance by American citizens since the outbreak of the European war but, according to Edwin Lefevre in Everybody's magazine for November, the American who imagines that there is a great volume of trade there to be picked without effort like ripe plums off a tree, is doomed to disappointment. In his very interesting article Lefevre points out that there is a vast volume of trade in Central and South America which merchants and manufacturers of this country have an opportunity to go after now that imports from Europe are shut off, but if we are to retain any part of this trade amounting to over $800,000,000 annually, after the war is over, we must begin systematic and permanent campaigns.

It is pointed out that each country has its own needs and its own problems, while in all the question of finance enters first as of paramount importance. Europe stands first in Southern trade because her banks and her business men work hard in bond in assisting the South Americans to finance and develop their countries. Europe sends young men out to locate, to learn the language and customs and needs and these young men grow up with the country, become interested in its affairs and naturally are always boasting the works of their native land. The banking connections of practically all Central and South American countries are in London, even goods bought in America being paid for through the English medium.

Mr. Lefevre's conclusions are that America is coming to the period when foreign markets should be developed and the only way to do it is to take a lesson from the thoroughness of Europe, send our young men who can speak Spanish to Latin America, let them live there and become identified with their adopted countries. In this way, and this way only, can American manufacturers hope to secure a permanent proportion of South and Central American trade.

OUR DEBATE OVER DEMON RUM.

Doubtless in order to keep in trim for the campaign next year or the year after, Brother McAfee drops around occasionally to have a pleasant five minute debate with us over Demon Rum. Brother Mac has strongly entrenched himself behind the assertion that it is not right for Cincinnati to rule the state and refuse to be shelled out when we weekly went to know it, by pursuing the analogy, it is also not right for the townships to rule the cities. The debate has not progressed further than the two major propositions and starts all over again at each session.

We have hopes of settling the Demon Rum question sometime in the next century.

LURE OF THE WOODS.

With the voice of rustling leaves and the line of golden sycamore the woods are calling. Those whose hearts have ever stood still for an instant at the whirr of the rising pectoral or whose eyes have ached for a moment when the sunlit leaves were on, or who have felt that pause of hesitancy in the sunlight makes his instant dash will need more than poise or wile to keep them in the city;

Yet it is not the lust of slaughter that calls the hunter. There is a wistfulness about the country in the autumn. It rates upon the tired spirit like the spell of a new motto; after so many have come tiresome. Pumpkins glow like shafts of lightning amid the shocks of corn; there is a new symphony made by the dry leaves and crackling twigs under foot; there is a restlessness, as though nature said, "I have done my work for the year and now repose."

Burdens slip from the shoulders, fears fade from the heart. Men who walk with gun on shoulder and drooping head, the broken hearted deeply and think silently. They are sad and they are free. Perspective is regained and some of the buoyancy of earlier years comes back and is welcome. Whether the day is to come or not, the day ahead is silent and songs of the autumn woods are gain, all gain. Philadelphia Ledger.

We rise to remark that if money talks, then the talkers are Willis, Harry Bannon and Paul Selly, or to be exact, the two at the pre-encounter. They each do a little to make a progressive companion. The other fellow down the wire was a good one, but he got into Davy Tid's bushes quicker. Oh well, what's old is old.

HOW ED JONES CAME HOME.

Ed Jones had a desire of a welcome home after his long night in because he joined the G. O. P. against him. We read in the voracious jackson Sun that when Ed came to town he was received upon by a committee and treated like a king. Ed Wood's best opus which was six years ago, four stories high, was sold. Then Ed was invited by the snowballers to the snowball assembly where there was a great mass of Ed's opus. As soon as Ed was there, true, he is the handiest man over to be uprooted, was leaning side with his mouth all set to a smile. The speaker in his speech of welcome that lasted for a few moments, Ed, in his thanks, dodged the "snowball" and went to the Cambrian Hotel, where he had a hand since reception.

P. S.—One Hoy also spoke for quite awhile. She was clever. Ed have made a speech? Was there anything left? He had to say after Hoy and Hoy got through! We leave you to Ed.

Strange how unkind things will happen in the world, and in the best of us. Here is former President Taft round on us, and at the miserable showing made by the Progressives in the recent election.

AMEND THE PRIMARY LAW.

One of the problems that will confront the next legislature will be the amendment of the primary law so as to meet the wishes of the majority of the voters of the state. No one who has watched the operation of the present law will be found ready to take up cudgels in its behalf. Insofar as The Times is concerned, it seems to us that the present law should be repealed and a new law enacted along sane and sensible lines, as indicated by experience with the present law.

The present primary law, in larger units than counties, has proven itself unwieldy and unfair. It has simply brought an endless chain of petitions to the voters and it has piled up expenses upon the candidates. The item of expense also has militated against poor men entering into contests for more important offices. They simply have no show against men with longer pocket books, and in this respect the law has worked out directly opposite to what its backers claimed for it.

Now has the claim that the primary would destroy the bosses and result in better nominations been borne out by the results. In fact it seems easier for a set of men to get what they want in a primary than in a convention. And certainly no better men have been nominated for office than would have been nominated in convention.

It may be that a scheme can be worked out for a simplified primary law that will wipe out the bad and save the good features of the present law. We hope that this can be done.

At least the legislature ought to try. It can hardly give us anything worse than we have.

SAID THE MAN ON THE STREET CAR

Speaking of that proposed trip of ours to the South Pole next year and the inducement we held out to aspiring politicians to accompany us, the man sitting next to us in the street car this morning remarked rather smugly that he knew of a couple of dozen or so around here who could be taken down there and left on top of a snow bank without many tears being shed by the proletarian. And for his part he did not want to be personal, but he was open to conviction as to whether or not there was any pressing demand for our own return.

Woman's Suffrage is growing in popularity in an inverse ratio in Ohio. Two years ago it was beaten 50,000. This year it was beaten 200,000, but still the sweet things are bound to have the last word. And so they are coming again.

Edwin Jones bids fair to be the Belgium of the Republican state campaign. Having seen the day by his famous deal with the Cincinnati liquor men he will likely be sacrificed upon the altar of Dry indignation by (unfortunately) Willis in hopes of thereby saving his administration from going on the rocks.

The judicial ticket was hardest to vote. There was nothing on the ballot to indicate how father would have marked it.— Toledo Blade.

"When we bought dear Little Bobby the electric flashlight he had been begging for so long," says a South Side mother. "We never anticipated that the first time we had company he would hold it up to the guest's ear and say: 'Oh, I just want to see if your car is clean!'"— Kansas City Star.

Our evening suggestion to Senator Trecker and Representative Sprague is that they have a law passed requiring each candidate for office to keep an accurate list of the men who promised to vote for them, publish the same in papers of opposite politics at regular rates, five days before election and also post lists at the various polling places.

Up to date Fred Baker is the only one of the old guard of G. O. P. office holders who has told us that he is not an active candidate for office since Ohio has been redeemed. Not to destroy any possible chances we might add that he is in a receptive mood.

Another examination of the defeat of the Prohibition Amendment is that the voters wanted to make sure of having the Pilgrim Singers with them again next year.

BOY KILLED BY

FALL OF SLATE

Ironton, O., November 11.—Geo. Rawlins, aged 16, son of David Rawlins, of Oak Ridge, on Padilla Creek, this county, was killed by a fall of slate Tuesday afternoon about 2:30, while engaged in his father's coal mine.

But few particulars of the incident could be learned yesterday afternoon but it was learned that he was buried under a heavy fall of slate and his body not extricated for some time. When the slate was removed it was found that his body was badly crushed and death followed shortly after the fall. The father escaped injury.

"BILLY BUTT IN"BILLY IS GLAD TO RETURN TO EUROPE, BUT OH, THOSE TURKS.*CHURCH WILL INSTALL MOVING PICTURE SHOW*WILL KEEP UP FIGHT

A distinct innovation in local church work will be inaugurated at the First Presbyterian church about Thanksgiving when a complete moving picture outfit will be installed, and used in the work of taking care of the young folks, and on special occasions. At least one night each week, probably Monday night, will be devoted to moving pictures, and all children of the Sunday school will be admitted free. A small admission fee will be charged others.

Travel, educational and other high class feature pictures will be shown.

Rev. John Wirt Dunning, the pastor, says the idea has been worked out in other places and proved a big success.

The church gymnasium, which has been closed for the summer, will be re-opened next Tuesday evening. New equipment has been added and the gym is in first class condition. Tuesday, Friday and Saturday nights will be devoted to the boys. The girls will have Thursday nights, and on Saturday afternoons roller skating will hold sway.

Friday nights will be designated "Open Nights," and all boys will be welcomed, but on the other nights only boys who attend one of the church services will be admitted.

Frank Logan and wife and Mr. and Mrs. R. Crockett, of Waynedale, were registered at the Washington Hotel.

Runs In Front Of Automobile; Hurt*FEARFUL HUMOR COVERED FACE-RESINOL CURED

Will Stillwell, aged 7 years, a pupil of the Second street school, was struck down by an automobile in front of the Gilbert Grocery company's building Wednesday noon.

The boy received a cut on the tip of the nose, bruises about the face and a scratch on the knee. He had been pursued by some older boys and in looking around just as he stepped from the curb got directly in front of the automobile. Fortunately the auto was going at only a moderate rate of speed and swerved aside, thereby giving the lad only a glancing blow. The boy was bundled into the automobile and removed to the home of his parents on Third street, near Mayism.

The mayor, who with Safety Director Joseph Lake, happened along on the scene a moment later, pointed to the accident as evidence again of the necessity of teachers warning their pupils against running into the streets.

RIVER IMPROVEMENT MEETING A SUCCESS

The annual meeting of the Ohio River Improvement Association held at the Gibson Hotel in Cincinnati the past few days was one of the best ever the association has held in recent years. More real work was accomplished than the last two meetings put together, declared Frank M. Baggs upon his return from the Queen City Wednesday morning. He was a delegate from this city and represented the Employers' Association, of which he is the secretary.

It was announced at the meeting that 50 per cent of the dam work to be done in the Ohio river, which will provide for an all year round 3 foot stage had been completed and

ALLEGED ROBBER OF GLOCKNER STORE IS CAUGHTCAPTURE IS MADE
AFTER AN EXCITING FIGHT WITH POLICE

Chief W. T. McCarty and Alex M. Glockner returned from Chillicothe, Wednesday noon, with Ed Kelly, who claims to be an automobile reciper of Detroit, the man who will be charged with robbing the Glockner hardware store.

Four revolvers and as many razors which were recovered and identified by Mr. Gioeckner were also brought back from Chillicothe. The merchant's name was inscribed on the razors. Three other guns stolen from the Glockner store are still missing but it is hoped to locate them through a pal of Kelly, who is held at Chillicothe, the authorities there expecting to "sweat" him.

Kelly Denies He Is Guilty

Kelly, in full knowledge of the robbery, discloses acquaintance with the man suspected as his accomplice and insists that the one gun he is known to have sold to the man who had agreed to divide the proceeds with him.

Kelly, who is a young man of small and slender build, rather tall, well dressed and wearing eye-glasses, was captured by Officer McCarty at George Haun after an exciting chase in the railroad yards at Chillicothe. The authorities there expect to "sweat" him.

The Chillicothe police had been other thought because he knew the identity of the Glockner robbery by former was a meeting place for the manufacturers, Philo Hay Specie Company, Newark, N. J., to do police officers and did not think to have started to make anyone would be held enough to

to rounds of the various pawnshops and second hand stores.

One of the guns recovered by Mr. Glockner was a U. S. revolver which he had not missed in making up an inventory of the stolen property.

Cottrell, a second hand dealer of No. 381 East Main street, told of having purchased two guns from strangers and said he could not identify them. He said just seen them enter the Union station.

Cottrell entered the saloon and between the two men were inside and eating supper he failed to recognize them. They must have deceived him for they slipped out through a side door and took up a position on the corner. Seeing them at close range Cottrell recognized the pair and pointed them out to Officer Haun. When the latter started towards them they ran broke into a run, darting into a street car and running up and down alleys and side streets.

Exciting Scene At the Wind Up

Kelly made repeated attempts to stop the officer with a roar he came in one hand and Haun had fired several shots at him, finally overtook him. Kelly seized high and holding Haun by one arm while with the other he prepared to strike him with a bullet end of a gun. Haun told him that he had two shells left and would kill him on the spot if he dared make another move and the man submitted to arrest.

When searched Kelly was found to have $1 concealed in his pockets. Officer Haun retraced his steps over the route he followed Kelly and found a case of guns and the four revolvers which the fellow evidently concealed during his flight. Two revolvers sold to Cottrell by the man for $2.50 and the other two were also recovered by Mr. Glockner.

The supposed pal was caught and claimed to hail from Chillicothe. His name was not given. Mr. Cottrell believed him to be the same of whom he purchased a gun for $2, but he had since changed his mind.

A police officer thought the sweater worn by Kelly to be of a lot stolen from a men's store in that town a week ago.

On route to Portsmouth the man aboard the N. & W. recognized Kelly as a man he had seen before some time. He told Mr. Glockner he knew the man for some time and he had given him a card address.

The young police head of the town gave details of his own. Tears came to his eyes as his statements were made. "They're liable to do anything," he said in

GRAY HAIR TURNS

How to Restore Natural Shade
—No One Will Know You're Using Anything

Prominent druggists in town report that most unusual results are now being accomplished in what many people have heretofore believed impossible—restoring gray hair to its natural, youthful color. This change is brought about by the use of the famous Hay's Hair Health, a preparation that is endorsed by hundreds of thousands of men and women whom it has rescued from the embarrassment of premature graying.

Hay's Hair Health is not a dye. It does its work solely by natural means in that it causes the oxygen in the air to act upon the hair that it gradually, but surely, changes back to the lustrous dark shade it was before becoming gray.

You, ladies, gray hair is a thing of the past, it is your own fault if you continue to let faded, streaked, thin, straggly hair mar your appearance. All you need do is apply this fine and harmless hair preparation and nature will make you young again. The most particular ladies of the town, and men, too, are using it, but you do not know it. For, unlike dyes, Hay's Hair Health works in a way that tells no one.

All druggists sell it in 25c, 50c and $1.00 bottles and are authorized by the manufacturer, Philo Hay Specie Company, Newark, N. J., to refund full price to my purchaser not entirely pleased and satisfied.

POLICE ARE WARNED

Police received messages Tuesday telling of the robbery of a general store at Broadway, O., a robbery at Charles F. Umphrey's home near Marion, O., the theft of a black mare and sorrel by Louis Zimmerman, a Brice, O., farmer, from off a street corner in Columbus, and a warning from Munroe, Ind., to keep on lookout for a smooth, foreign-bred horse, who makes a specialty of operating around hotels and restaurants.

and he may be bad, but this man's name makes me mad.

A ROUGH NECK.

What are you trying to do? Write poetry? The ears evidently contain a shipment of goods consigned to J. B. King.

Dear Dolly Wise.—How should girls from 18 to 20 years of age have their cards printed?

A FRIEND.

Yes.

They were closed from 1908 until the fall of 1911. Sunday.

Dear Dolly.—What do you think of a person who will try to force a young girl to marry a man she does not like, simply because it would be good taste?

THE GIRL.

Surely marriage is too solemn and important a step to be urged on an immature girl. Nothing but sincere love between the contracting parties can make a happy marriage, and when that exists, there is no necessity to urge.

Dear Miss Wise.—I have no beau, yet I am 19 years old. All my girl friends have had fellows for a long time. I too have had a great many admirers, but none of them have asked to be my steady. I like the boys while I am with them, but I forget them as soon as they are out of my sight. Why is this?

FICKLE GAIL.

I hope it is because you have something more important to think about. There is little hope of a girl becoming a sensible, useful woman when she can think of nothing but the boys.

SOCIETY

Chillicothe, O., Nov. 10, 1914.—Dear Miss Dolly Wise.—Portsmouth, Ohio.—I wish you would answer this question in your column if possible. Who the Dickens is J. B. King? I see his name on everything, on box cars, high on flat cars low. I see this name wherever I go. He may be good

Times Pattern Service No. 1096

1096. A new model in Basque style.

Basque Dress for Misses and Small Women (with or without Train).

This attractive design is cut on prevailing lines, and is both graceful and comfortable. The basque front is cut to form a small train draped over the sides and back, forming a soft bow over the centre. The sleeve is in wrist length. A graceful three-color border finishes the neck edge. This suit in green taffeta with pipings of black satin and fancy jet buttons is most unique. It is good also in sateen, velvet, velvetine, plush, mohair or chintz. The pattern is cut in four sizes, 14, 16, 17 and 18 years. It requires 3½ yards of 44-inch material for a 16 year size, without train, 1½ yard less. The skirt measures about 1½ yard at its lower edge.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10c in silver or stamps.

Orders for patterns are forwarded to New York to be filled, hence it requires several days for the pattern to reach the purchaser. Patterns can not be ordered by telephone. Do not use postage stamps for larger denominations than two cents.

CAUTION—Order adult pattern by number of pattern, giving bust measure for waist patterns, and waist measure for skirt patterns. For Misses and Children give number of pattern and age only.

COUPON

ALBERT.

Squeaking is caused by air getting between the layers of leather in the sole. Putting the sole in water (do not let the water come up on the shoe) and soaking it over night will often make the layers stick together and stop the squeak.

Dear Miss Wise.—Please suggest a pretty way to make a serge dress for a school girl.

MARYBELL.

A skirt with inverted pleat, a long flaring train, a blousing waist with long sleeves and a waistband will make a high or low neck will make a pretty school dress. They could wear white collars and cuffs once in a while.

Dear Dolly.—I sometimes compose very pretty poems and would like to become a great poet. Do poets get good wages?

VERSE WRITER.

Not unless they are great poets. Usually many years of small income have to be lived through before a poet proves to the world that he can write poetry. Would advise you to take up some other work and you could write a little on the side, maybe.

Dear Dolly.—Is a girl 19 years old too big to wear hair ribbons? JULIA.

Yes. You are too old for hair ribbons. Wear your hair in a French roll or low on the neck.

Dear Dolly.—Which would you suggest for service this winter, a suit or coat? ALICE.

A suit could be worn at most any season of the year and an interlined jacket answers the purpose of a coat even in cold weather. You might get a suit now and later on get a coat.

Dear Dolly.—What will keep Love Sick Violet?—You are too young to have a steady. I can't tell whether you are pretty or not without seeing you. Wear your dresses about to your shoe tops. In answer to your post script, most emphatically, NO!

SAGE TEA PUTS LIFE AND COLOR IN HAIR

Don't stay gray! Sage Tea and Sulphur darkens hair so naturally that nobody can tell.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost over night if you'll get a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old, famous Sage Tea Recipe are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray, becoming faded, dry, weaxy and thin have a surprise waiting for them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your hair becomes luxuriantly dark and beautiful! All hairdressing goes, scalp itching and falling hair.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur tonight, and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.

Our business methods are open and above board. We haven't a different price to different people, it's the same price to all which is the lowest and we guarantee the goods to be the best. In photography the best is the cheapest in the "long run". We do not mean that the highest priced goods are always the best, far from it, for we have some things that cost twice as much but we don't think they are any better. That's where our advice comes in and where we can save you money.

ANOTHER GIRL MAY MAKE CHARGE AGAINST STOCKHAM

BREAKS A COLD, OPENS CLOGGED HEAD AND NOSE

Constable James Eggers, of Greenup, came to Portsmouth Wednesday morning to take in custody Ernest Stockham, of Fullerton, relatives of the girl having lodged complaint with Squire Braden of Fullerton.

Stockham left Fullerton a few weeks ago to escape arrest, but was apprehended on this side of the river on a similar charge, and brought before Judge Bentley, who ordered him lodged in jail until requisition papers could be secured for his transfer to the Kentucky authorities.

Stockham is wanted in Kentucky to answer to a charge of incest, it being alleged that he is responsible for the present condition of his daughter, Nettie Pearl, aged 18 years. It was also stated Wednesday that he is likely to face a paternity suit which will be filed by a young girl of South Portsmouth.

Relatives of the girl having lodged complaint with Squire Braden of Fullerton.

Stockham was taken to the Greenup jail Wednesday noon, there to await a preliminary hearing before Squire Braden of Fullerton, at an early date.

PRICE OF BEER IS GOING UP

The recently imposed war tax has caused local agents and distributors of beer to make a small increase in the price of keg and bottled beer.

Bottled beer, which has been delivered for 65 cents per dozen, is now increased to 70 cents, and keg beer which formerly was $1.75 per keg, is now $2 per keg. Saloonkeepers, too, are affected by the advance, they being required to pay 50 cents more per barrel.

Kept for 65 cents per dozen, is now increased to 70 cents, and keg beer which formerly was $1.75 per keg, is now $2 per keg. Saloonkeepers, too, are affected by the advance, they being required to pay 50 cents more per barrel.

Giants and Ivory Knobs Are Winners at Bowling, Masonic League Opens

With a whoop and a hurrah, fringed with grous and sighs, four teams of the Masonic Bowling League opened the 1914-15 season at the Play House Tuesday evening, surrounded by a company of local routers who made the air ring as some well directed maulerade smote the king pin square in the crook and sent the lumber tumbling to the carpeted pit in the rear. The opening festivities were devoid of ardor, and from the very jump off until the last ball had been spun down the freshly oiled alleys, the players fought with the same determination that characterizes the Allies and Germans in the western theater of the European conflict. When the smoke of battle lifted, the Giants and Ivory Knobs stood out in bold relief as the conquerors of their respective opponents, the Bald Eagles and Cement Specials. The Giants took three in a row from Captain Howard's Bald Eagles, while the Ivory Knobs due to the striking out proclivities of Captain Perry Winkler Young, put it over Swapping's Cement Specials, champs of 1913, two out of three.

The players shot at new wood—timber that had never before seen a maulerade. Consequently splits were as common as bound dogs during rabbit season. However, he that as it may, some fairly good scores were being up, and the players gave evidence of making regular tournament scores before the bell taps. Good humor was in evidence throughout the evening's festivities, each putting for the other, and chuckling gleefully when No. 10 and 7 shoot up as proud sentinels that escaped the assault. Some crack shots were turned in, Charles Zehner of the Bald Eagles turning in a couple of extremely hard spares. While Mr. Ross, of the Giants had the satisfaction of ringing up 3-10 split, a shot that requires uncanny accuracy, tempering with skill.

The Giants and Bald Eagles shopped their battles on alleys 2 and 3, and at a time when the blinds in distress, they would take the lead in the very first frame and hold it during the entire bout. In the Bald Eagles began cutting up any expert that looked as though they might do something desperate. Captain Sheridan of the Giants would immediately issue orders to his men to shoot steadily and carefully and before the echo of his voice had died away, the blinds would gain up and a half. Captain Howard of the Bald Eagles, one of the crated bowlers in the country, had one axletime left, splitting the tail to six of the ten frames. In the first game, to save his life he could not get going and he hoped to use his scores via the hinge rule, the players gave promise of developing into expert artists and after the games, Captain Howard was so well pleased with their showing that he predicted he had an elegant chance for the title.

Captain Sheridan was the high individual player in the evening, averaging 12.5 for the three games, a clip that made it easy for him to end them in a row. His men did not fall far behind, finding from the work of last year, he has picked up a couple of novelties in team and Ross, his two new records over on alleys 1 and 5 to the team.

KICKS ABOUT BELL

A petition asking that the largest bell of the new Holy Redeemer church chimes be not sounded during the early morning hours, and which was circulated among persons living in the immediate vicinity of the church, has never been filed with the mayor, despite reports to the contrary, according to the city attorney.

CRAFT MUST EXPLAIN

The mayor has ordered Wiley A. Craft before him to explain a complaint of alleged embezzlement over $15 from the German-American Surfacing Company, of Cleveland.

Craft, it is said, sold a bill of goods to Isaac Mills, a motor-hotel house keeper, Mills paying $10 to him and agreeing to pay the balance upon delivery of the goods. After six days had elapsed Mills received a statement from the Cleveland firm for the full amount. He wrote in reply that he had paid the company's agent and held his receipt. The company wrote back to him that he had no right to pay Craft, who was not authorized to do the firm's collecting.

MACCABEES ATTENTION

Regular meeting Friday evening, Harrington hall at 7:30. Several candidates for the first degree.

OUCH! LAME BACK, RUB LUMBAGO OR BACKACHE AWAY

Kidneys cause Backache! Not they have no nerves, therefore can not cause pain. Listen! Your backache is caused by lumbago, sciatica or a strain, and the quickest relief is soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil". Rub it right on your painful back, and instantly the soreness, stiffness and lame ness disappears. Don't stay crippled! Get a small trial bottle of "St. Jacobs Oil" from your druggist and limber up. A moment after it is applied you'll wonder what became of the backache or lumbago pain.

Rub old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" whenever you have sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism or sprains, as it is absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin.

Look Here Joe

The telephones at police headquarters were kept hot Wednesday morning, a woman at the other end of the line urging that someone be sent to No. 129 Bond street to finish the dog Joe Bonzo had shot several times. Complaint was also made that Joe had torn up all of the sod with his big can.

EQUITY GAS HEATERS

There is an Equity Gas Heater for every purpose, from the small Copper Reflector to the largest Heater. All styles and finishes. Don't be led astray by some high sounding name—Equity's heat by radiation and circulation—the simplest and surest known method. We don't claim to overcome the laws of nature, we assist them. Remember, made in Portsmouth. When you spend a dollar for an Equity it comes back to you.

Resumes Duties

Len Odle has resumed his duties as inspector on the new county bridge job, having just returned from Borden where his wife, Mrs. Odle, aged 35 years, died of tuberculosis a few days ago. Mrs. Odle was a daughter of Wilson Thompson of Borden, and besides her husband is survived by a young son and a two-year-old daughter. Burial took place at Mt. Joy.

TRY THIS FOR YOUR COUGH

Thousands of people keep coughing because unable to get the right remedy. Coughs are caused by inflammation of Throat and Bronchial Tubes. What you need is to soothe this inflammation. Take Dr. King's New Discovery quickly and completely stop my cough," writes J. R. Watts, Phyley, Texas. Money back if not satisfied, but it nearly always helps.

Prowler Caught

M. T. Spence, a Kentuckian, was caught prowling about the Hill-top district by Officer Duke Cooper Wednesday morning at 2:20. He was locked up for investigation. Wants A Hound

Charles Bartow, a contracting plumber, is relying upon the police to find a hound for him so that he may do some rabbit hunting next week. Charley has asked that if any hound is caught in the round-up of stray dogs that it be saved for him, he promising to provide a good home.

From this it is clear that there are two prime requisites of health, pure air and bright red blood—the pure air to furnish the oxygen, the rich blood to carry it where it is needed. Dr. William Pink Pills make the blood rich and red because they increase its power to carry oxygen, actually making it so much more able to carry increased life and strength to every organ of the body. Try these little pills and note the increased color in cheeks and lips; see how your nerves become steadier, you appetite better, your digestion stronger, your step quicker, your breathing lighter.

"Building Up the Blood" is a handy little book to have. It is free on request from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., 52nd Street, N. Y. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

QUAINT OLD CURIOS AT D. A. R. EXHIBITION ARE OF UNUSUAL INTEREST

the D. A. R. is an organization. The little stoves were filled with charcoal and carried to church or put in buggies as foot warmers. They are the property of M. R. Reed.

Mrs. E. Seaton of 1542 Twelfth street, has a wooden chopping bowl on display that was used by her grandparents.

A butter jar that was used in crossing the ocean is the property of Miss Katie Bowler.

Four candle molds are something seldom seen on display.

A hard oil lamp, 70 years old, belongs to Mrs. J. Swander.

A waffle iron with a three foot handle is attracting considerable attention.

The relics of the war times carry one back to the days of the Revolutionary and Civil War periods.

A sun dial used in 1723 in Cambridge, England, and a brass trivet belongs to Margaret Rickert.

A tea set that was the property of Washington Kinney now belongs to Mary Reed. A large amount of rare old lace is on display that belongs to Mrs. Reed.

A warning pan used to warm the beds of olden times is the property of Mrs. Dixon.

The original plat of the town of Alexandria, Adams county, now Scioto county, made by Major J. Bell in June, 1799, is the prized article of Mrs. L. M. Rickert.

An English clasp that once belonged to Washington Kinney is over 100 years old. One of the most curious articles on display is a piece of bar of lye soap that is over eighty years old, owned by Mrs. William Frame and made by John Pfeiferberger.

STEEL ORDER PLACED FOR NEW C. & O. BRIDGE

Cleveland, November 11.—The Daily Iron Trade today says:

"The Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad's contract for the substructure for the Ohio river bridge at Scioto prepared the way for letting 15,000 tons of steel. Chicago and Pittsburgh finished steel mills operate around 35 per cent capacity, and Eastern operations are equally slow. Confirmation is had that England has embargoed ferromanganese to the United States, which has upset the market and prices now tend upward.

Sheets in the Western market are shaded $1 a ton from the recent minimum, while plates, shapes and bars are firm at $2.10 Pittsburgh."

The Dravo Construction company are already at work on the substructure of the new $2,500,000 bridge.

Robert Fidler has taken a position in the office of County Auditor Patterson during the rush of work.

HARPER AND WORLEY HAD INEXPENSIVE CAMPAIGNS

Three candidates in the recent election filed their expense accounts with James Dittel, clerk of the board of elections, Wednesday.

Charles E. Worley, successful candidate for county commissioner, received no contributions from outside sources, and expended $60.75, a sum so low to the respondent enemy candidate.

John Jones, one of his unsuccessful opponents, expended $63 in his campaign, $30 of which was contributed to the Democratic county committee.

East John J. Harper $40.50 to be elected county surveyor, $10 of which went to the county committee.

At the Sun

Two hours spent at a good minstrel show is worth a whole barrel of medicine. Hundreds of doctors will give the advice: "There's no use in giving her any more medicine. Take her to the theatre and let her have a good laugh."

To laugh-lovers and hough-nakers, a laugh held on the hand of fellowship. Did you ever see a popular man that did not have a smile on his face? The smile seems to go with his job "Popular man."

As does Billings used to say:

"Laughing is the sensuous af-flecking good all over, and showing it prominently in one spot." And Jos Billings literally rolled in laughter.

Because the American people are a laughter-loving nation, the minstrel show will be popular for ever.

One of the most popular of these companies, Tom Powell's Peerless Minstrels are to hold the rounds in Portsmouth three days, November 12, 13 and 14 at the Sun theatre.

At the Exhibit

A big western feature is being booked at the Exhibit tonight. It shows all the life of the western ranch and is taken from actual ranch life. The title of the picture is "The Fall Roundup At Yer Ranch." The production is one of the most attractive western pictures ever offered locally.

For Thursday night the management is offering another installment of "The Perils of Pauline." This latest installment of the great picture is on a par, if not better, than the preceding ones. Don't miss this number and remember that it is to be shown tomorrow night.

At the Sun

Constable Henry Shields on Tuesday levied upon a 46-horse power portable engine and boiler of John B. Elliott, of Twin Creek, in favor of Soiota county for delinquent taxes.

The outfit will be sold at the William Mottram home on Old Creek next Tuesday morning.

county auditor, has resumed his duties as superintendent of the New Boston schools.

Elizabeth Bratt, who has been teaching both school for about five weeks during the absence of Mrs. Eliza

Bratt of Grace street, Tuesday

resumes her studies.

Squire William McManes was aroused from a sound sleep late

Tuesday night by Mrs. George

Fletcher who wanted to swear out a warrant for her husband, Geo.

Pletcher, who she alleged cut her on the arm with a razor, following a quarrel between the two.

Mrs. Fletcher claimed her husband had been drinking and he was the cause of all their trouble.

OVERCOAT IS NIPPED

An unknown thief entered the home of Henry Wood, of North

High Street, last night and left with

Mr. Wood's overcoat. Admission to the home was gained through a casement window, which the thief forced.

For Thursday night the management is offering another installment of "The Perils of Pauline." This latest instal-

par, if not better, than the preceding ones. Don't miss this number and remember that it is to be shown tomorrow night.

In every detail this offering eclipses either of the two previous ones.
